Houston, TX, July 23, 2010. AHFC 96G player Michaela Abam was recently named to the US National Player Pool. Michaela, identified as one of the top players in Region III in her age group will now attend U.S. Soccer's Under-14 Girls' National Identification Camp and spend seven days at the University of Portland in Oregon in early August.

"The goal at this camp is to encourage, teach, and evaluate the country's most talented youth soccer players while putting them in a positive soccer environment. Many future Youth National Team players were first spotted at this camp" - U.S. Soccer.

AHFC Technical Director Nick Hallam commented "We are so proud of Michaela and she deserves this recognition of her ability. She is still young but has huge potential to go on and make an impact at the National level for years to come. With continued hard work and dedication to improving her game she will get better and better." Hallam continued "We have some very talented players coming through the Albion Hurricanes FC program at this time and are looking forward to helping more AHFC players earn recognition at the State, Regional and National level over the coming years."

ABOUT AHFC

AHFC is a non-profit organization leading the way in South Texas youth soccer by inspiring and developing young men and women through world class coaching and innovative techniques; as well as instilling within our athlete the proper framework, self-esteem, confidence, and sportsmanship. With Central and West campuses, AHFC has approximately 1,200 young men and women players with teams in the Region III Premier League, State Classic League, Division 1, Super 2, Division 2, and Developmental Academy programs.
