Houston, TX, April 14, 2010 – AHFC is pleased to announce that the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and University of Connecticut's Men soccer programs will conduct pre-season camp for the AHFC boys program this August. AHFC U15 and older Region III Premier League West (PLW) players will have the unique advantage to be coached by two of the premier Division 1 college programs in the country. AHFC is excited to offer this fantastic opportunity for our players, which is unmatched in the region.

This pre-season camp will provide our players the exceptional experience of what it is like to go through a collegiate training curriculum. The pre-season camp will be conducted August 9 – 13, 2010 at the AHFC Campbell Road Complex located at 3911 Campbell Road. This camp, along with the Reading FC Professional Soccer camp will ready our players for the 2010/2011 season.
